WARNING!

The occupant of this office is a GEEK; his knowledge of arcane facts and figures is beyond that which you can, or wish to, understand. He knows the across-axle widths of several Sturmey-Archer geared bicycle hubs. He can disassemble hex codes for old 8-bit processors in his head. What's more, he wrote this sign in raw PostScript; dtp is for the little people.

UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES should you engage him in conversation or make eye contact. He is proud of his geekdom, and may attempt to share it with you.
